Holiday Greetings from Mrs. Harris

On behalf of the faculty and staff of Andre Agassi College Preparatory Academy, I extend our wish that Peace, Joy, Hope and Happiness be yours during this blessed Holiday season and throughout the New Year. We hope your holidays are filled with the joy of family and friends, with the wonders of this season, and with the hope and promise of a new year.

To highlight this season, I extend a personal invitation to you to join us on Friday, December 16th for our Holiday Programs at 8:00 am and 10:00 am.

I encourage all of us to remember the importance of this holiday season. Show your children how to take care of those who are in need! Practice random acts of kindness! Take your family caroling! Find a snow filled mountain and have a snowball fight. Or just make a batch of popcorn and chill out in front of family videos or a wholesome movie.

This is also a great time of year for teachable moments. How are we teaching our children? What is the difference between want and need? Are there others who need more than we want? As a family, are we living within our means? Reading, Writing, Math, Character and yes even Science can be taught during this season.

Please note that our Christmas Holiday season and winter break will start on Monday, December 19 through Monday, January 2, 2012. School will resume on Tuesday, January 3, 2012 at 7:30 am sharp.

Have a great holiday

Robin Harris
